

Liate Wote: Volta Region

Liate Wote , home of serene Togbo falls, and Afadjoto, the highest mountain in Ghana.(2905 feet above sea level), is peaceful village nestled at the foot of the range of mountains that makes up the Ghana /Togo boarder.

Activates

- Conquer the highest mountain in Ghana, Afadjato, for rewarding breathtaking views.
- Take a hike through the forest, coffee and cocoa plantations, to the serene and beautiful Tagbo waterfall. Swim in the refreshing natural clean pool
- Engage yourself in the village life with farm tours, village tours, palm wine tapping, beekeeping ,mushroom farm, snakes viewing etc.
- Facilities include a peaceful 6unit guesthouse and camping grounds. Stop off point to other tourist attractions including Wli Falls and Tafi Atome Monkey Sanctuary

How to get there:

In your own car, head north of the Tema-Hohoe Road, you will get to a police barrier at Golokwati junction. Make a right turn, and after about 6 kill, turn left on an untarred road at the village of Liati Ag-bonyra. Another 4 kilometres gets you to Liati Soba. Take the turn to the right and, after another 4 kilometres, you'll be in Liati Wote.

By Lorry from Accra, board a vehicle at Tudu to Hohoe or the Tema Roundabout to Hohoe

A fresh cocoa pod on tree

A welcoming pool at the base of Tagbo Falls

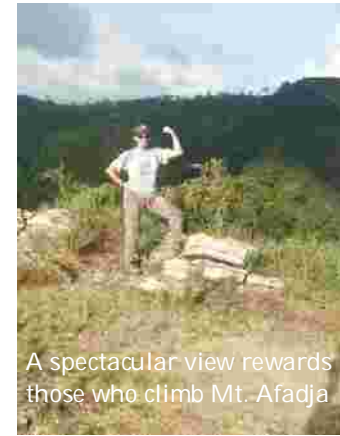

Ghana Rural Ecotourism & Travel Office

Primary Business Address
P.O.Box KN 925
Keneshie, Accra- Ghana

Phone: +233-21772955
E-mail: infogreet@gmail.com

Ghana Rural Ecotourism & Travel Office

A spectacular view rewards those who climb Mt. Afadja

Liate Wote

...Mountain, waterfall and local culture.

Experience nature, discover tradition.

Tel +233-21772955
+233-541375751