

Nzulezu; Western Region Stilt Village

Nzulezu in the Western Region of Ghana is a unique water village. This wonderful village is built wholly on stilts on an open lake fed by seven rivers. The name of the community is an Nzema phrase meaning "built on water".

Nzulezu give you the opportunity to watch lovely birds as the Egret, the grey heron the white heron and various species of Kingfishers.

Activities:

- As you visit Nzulezu take time to go through Nzemaland to see the Birth place of the first president of Ghana, Dr Kwame Nkrumah at Nkroful, Fort Apollonia in Beyin, Fort St Anthony at Axim, the Egyambra crocodile sanctuary, Ankobra River Estuary and Beach and may be fortunate witness the colourful Kundum festival celebrated by the Nzemas and Ahantas of the Western Region.
- Spend the night in homes of the people to learn more from their culture or enjoy your night stay in one of the Guesthouses, which will give you a night to remember.

How to get here:

Nzulezu is 90km west of Takoradi and 5km north of Beyin. Transport is available from Takoradi to Beyin through Asiamama or Axim. You then continue from Beyin to the stilt Village.
