

Tongo Tengzug; Upper East Region Rock Shrine

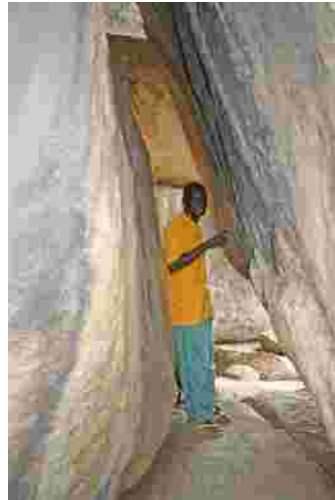

The Tongo Hills and Tenzug shrines constitute a unique cultural landscape. This unique landscape of the Tongo Hills is also home to numerous sacred shrines. Paramount among them is the ba'ar Tonna'ab ya' nee, nestled in the cliffs above the village of Tengzug. The hills also provide a stage for some of the most colourful and vibrant festivals in Ghana.

Activities:

- Explore the caves, rocks and natural surroundings to immerse yourself in the outstanding beauty of the area. Tour the village to have a first hand community life experience.
- Upon request, local meals can be arranged. Soft drinks and beer are also available. Visitors are welcome to stay in the homes of selected community members. There are decent hotels and guesthouses available in Bolgatanga.

How to get here:

Tengzug is in the Upper East Region it is 5km north on the Bolga – Tamale road. Drive 8km past the Bolga Customs barrier to Winkogo. Turn left at Winkongo follow the signs to the visitor center at Tengzug
